HIGHBINDER SEEK QUONG TAI'S LIFE.

Three Shots Fired at Well-Known Chinese Merchant While He Was Asleep.

A PREVIOUS EFFORT MADE.

Quong Is Supposed to Have Incurred Enmity of Countrymen by Aiding Police in Their Search for Opium.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.
San Francisco, Nov. 30.—Another deliberate attempt has been made to murder Quong Hing Tai, a merchant of Chinatown, this city, by some unknown person. This is the second time Quong's life has been sought by his enemies, and so terrified was the Chinese by the persistence of his foes that he did not report the latest assault to the police.

The second attempt to murder Quong Hing Tai occurred at 3:30 o'clock in the morning, while the intended victim of high-binder vengeance was asleep in the rear of his store. The would-be assassin peered through the glass doors and, aiming in the direction he supposed Quong's bed to be, fired three shots from a 44-caliber revolver.
The shots were fired in rapid succession, and were aimed on a horizontal line with each other, as to make the probability of hitting the merchant the more likely.
The fact that Quong occupied a bunk above the range of the shots is all that saved him from a fatal end.

A number of Chinese in the vicinity heard the firing, and looked about for the cause.
Two of the Chinatown squad of police also investigated the matter, but could discover nothing. Quong repaired the glass front of his store and plugged with putty the holes in the wooden partition that separates the store from the rear apartment.

Quong's reluctance to report his troubles to the police arises from a former attempt on his life. About two months ago a quantity of dynamite was exploded along the side of his store, wrecking a portion of the building, but doing no injury to the inmates. The police were unable to locate the perpetrators of this outrage, and Quong caused the walls of Chinatown to be placarded with notices offering a reward for the offenders. The following day there was ported another notice, over the reward proclamation, warning Quong that if he persisted in his hunt for the criminals he would be killed.

It is supposed that Quong incurred the enmity of a certain class of his countrymen by being suspected of aiding the officers in their work of searching for opium.
Quong, who abandoned the case because of the failure of Sherwell's relatives to raise the agreed fee, came to his rescue because the prisoner was without counsel, and seemingly without friends. They did not declare, as a matter of justice and without hope of reward.

Sherwell appeared calm as ever. His wife was at his side. Attorney Funkhouser made a statement and entered a plea of not guilty for the prisoner.

Police Chief Heike was the first witness.
A large number of witnesses were examined during the day, and the prisoner is making an effort to gain his freedom at this trial.

SHERWELL PLACED ON TRIAL.
Evansville Policeman Charged With Murder.

Evansville, Ind., Nov. 30.—Willard Sherwell, the Evansville policeman, charged with strangling to death Mrs. Georgia Riley and Miss Lena Renner, was called for preliminary trial this morning at 10 o'clock. Hundreds of people crowded into the courtroom and hundreds more were on the street unable to gain entrance. Funkhouser Bros., who abandoned the case because of the failure of Sherwell's relatives
to raise the agreed fee, came to his rescue
because the prisoner was without counsel,
and seemingly without friends. They did not declare, as a matter of justice and
without hope of reward.

FESTIVAL OF ST. CATHERINE.
Old Maids and Dressmakers Make Merry in Paris.

SPECIAL BY CABLE.
Paris, Nov. 30.—(Copyright by the New York Herald Company.)—The festival of St.
Catherine, patron of old maids and Paris dressmakers, caused excitement in the Rue de la Paix yesterday.

Every dressmaker sported fashions. Troops of merry maidens paraded the fashionable thoroughfare, making the welkin ring with their laughter and laughter.

St. Catherine, capriciously crowned with a mullin cap and surrounded by an escort of maids of honor.

One girl, Marie Martin, was knocked down by the Marquis de Beauvoir's carriage.

ILLNESS AND BLOW ON FOREHEAD AF-FECTED FAMOUS M. BERTHOLOT.

SPECIAL BY CABLE.
Paris, Nov. 30.—An eminent psychologic of Toulouse has examined M. Berthelot, with a view to accounting for the genius of the man whom the world has just been honoring.

He declares that heredity was greatly helped in M. Berthelot's case by pathologic conditions.

When Berthelot was of the age of 5 he had a high fever, which profoundly reacted upon his nervous system. Two years later he knocked his forehead against a mill stone, depressing the cranium and irritating the frontal lobes.

M. Berthelot told the Toulouse man that he made his greatest chemical discoveries intuitively.

GET THEIR MAIL ONCE A YEAR.
Postman Will Soon Visit Isolated Pitcairn Island.

SPECIAL BY CABLE.
London, Nov. 30.—It must be thought a most out of the way part of the world where the postman arrives only once a year and where the telegraph is unknown.

It would seem even more surprising that Great Britain should possess a place so outlandish.

But it does, in Pitcairn Island, a mere dot in the middle of the Pacific, the home of the descendants of the mutineers of H. M.
S. Bounty.

At the beginning of the new year some 120 inhabitants of that little colony will be gladdened by the appearance there of the warship Cornwall, the Corns mails travel land, a treat which is afforded them but once a year.

BABY ROASTED IN AN OVEN.
Mother Had Placed Little One There to Keep It Warm.

Sioux City, Ia., Nov. 30.—Mrs. J. Fred Meyers, living five miles from Correction-ville, wrapped her 6-months-old baby in a blanket, put her in the oven of the kitchen store to keep warm and went out in the yard to gather fuel. When, half an hour later, she returned the fire in the stove had blazed up and the room was filled with smoke. Rushing to the oven, she found the blanket and clothes in flames. The baby was dead and its arms and legs were burned to a crisp.

COUNTERMANDS HER ORDER FOR TIARA.

Mrs. Bradley Martin Finds That She Cannot Use the $125,000 Ornament.

SPECIAL BY CABLE.
London, Nov. 30.—It is now reported that Mrs. Bradley Martin has countermanded her order for the $125,000 Josephine coronet, and that the Paris jeweler to whom she is endeavored to have given the order threatens to sue her.

The story was that Mrs. Bradley Martin ordered a jeweler in the Rue de la Paix a duplicate of the famous tiara of Napoleon's Empress to adorn her own brow at the coronation. When the King learned the presence of Americans in the Abbey at the coronation, it was said that the coronet would be worn by Mrs. Bradley Martin's daughter, the Countess de la Roche.

It seems, however, that Mrs. Bradley Martin has realized that, even if she were admitted to the Abbey, she could not, as a commoner, wear a coronet, and also that even her daughter, the Countess, can wear only the coronet prescribed by the royal regulations—a plain, unjeweled circlet.

DECISION ANGERS THE FRENCH.
Sarcastic References to Lyman Automobile Case.

SPECIAL BY CABLE.
Paris, Nov. 30.—The Paris press interprets the Lyman case in the New York Custom-house as a deliberate discrimination against French automobiles, and urges a law retaliation against American automobiles being shipped to France, to take effect "when Americans are able to send us automobiles that will run."

ANGUISH.

If you are a sufferer from the great pain-inflicting disease known as rupture or hernia, you can appreciate the full meaning of the accompanying sketch entitled "Anguish." The drawn, careworn face is a picture of torture—the general attitude depicts anguish. Nothing visionary about that scene when you think of the numbers of sufferers of rupture, and how would you feel to be in continual agonizing pain, and to know that life was literally hanging in the balance? Every sufferer of rupture is in danger every moment he or she is ruptured.
Without warning and at any instant strangulation can result and that means death. It should not be very hard to choose between this awful predicament and the painless route to health and sure cure for That cure is known the country-over by the W. A. Lewin method.

Dr. Lewin is one of the most famed of physicians, and has been for the past 12 years practicing his specialty (rupture cure) in St. Louis, occasionally making extended tours in America and Europe.

The facts are that this well-known physician has cured more than 4,000 rupture victims in St. Louis alone. He has the names and addresses of all of his cures—twenty-five written testimonials. Read their letters; see them personally and learn what Dr. Lewin has done for others.

The cure is performed in from three to five weeks. Pain is relieved with the first treatment, and there is positively no interference with the patient's business or social duties. Last, but not least, Dr. Lewin absolutely and positively USES NO KNIFE. There is no operation of any kind; you can consult with him free of charge, and if the least bit doubtful—

YOU NEED NOT PAY ONE PENNY TILL CURED.
